

Tom McCulloch added the following facts:

- When DUGAN picked up JEANINE in her house, he recalls a struggle on the stairs. "He had to tug her because she was grabbing on something."
- He never hit her in his car; she was not bleeding in the car.
- Regarding the sexual assault, he said he tried vaginal sex, however, he stopped when she said it hurt.
- Had oral sex, he stopped it when he started to ejaculate.
- Had anal sex, he had JEANINE sit on his lap with her back to him. He recalls her hands were touching the top of the front seat. (He does not know exactly when, but he said he untied her hands before any sexual contact).
- He now recalls that her panties were yellow with a dark pattern.
- During February, 1983, BRIAN DUGAN had a mustache, and he did not wear glasses. His hair was worn with a part in the middle, it was short on the top, slightly longer on the sides and even longer in the back.
- McCulloch said a 6" section of wood near the spot where the striker plate is located within the door frame broke out when the door was kicked in. In Addition, the door molding split away from the wall.

Mr. McCulloch requested the above information be conveyed to the DuPage County State's Attorney's Office. The R/A agreed and the interview was terminated at approximately 9:10 P.M.
